

BRUCE WAKE 2010 ACCESS CLASS WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS SKUD 18 International Championship

Newsletter Number 8 dated 30 May 2010

This will be the final newsletter before the event starts on 4 June with the first Championship races on 7 June. Any further information for competitors will be found on appropriate Notice Boards at Rutland Sailing Club.

Corrections to Sailing Instructions

Those with sharp eyes will have noted that there are two errors on page 6 of the Sailing Instructions as published on the website. On the top line "LIBERY" should be "LIBERTY". Half way down the page, delete LIBERTY so that the line reads "ACCESS 303 TWO PERSON. These errors will be corrected with a notice on the Official Notice Board.

Registration, Measurement, Charter Boats and Free Sailing Practice

For those arriving early at the venue, the first priority should be to register and then present boats for inspection and measurement by the inspection team. Liberty sailors will also need to present themselves for weighing in normal sailing clothing. Sailors with charter boats booked will wish to find their boats and take them over.

For those who want to get afloat, arrangements have been made for safety boat cover for practice sailing as follows:

Friday, 4 June, and Saturday, 5 June, from 10:00 to 15:00

It is not yet confirmed that hoist operators will be available for these periods. Shore support helpers are unlikely to be available, so sailors will need to arrange any help needed to rig and launch boats.

On Sunday, 6 June, sailing practice will not be permitted before the briefing at 11:00 and formal Practice Races at 14:00 (two-person classes) and 16:00 (one-person classes).

Results Service during the Championships

For those supporters not at the sailing club but wishing to keep up with the results day-by-day, provisional results will be published daily on the Rutland Sailing Club website – <http://rutlandsc.co.uk/cms/index.php> – Open Results.
